

SHOPPERS’ PARADISE: South Africa’s biggest single-phase shopping mall development to date, The Mall of Africa, opens its doors in Midrand next week. It is being developed by Atterbury Property Group and measures 131 000m². It will have over 300 shops and already more than 90 percent of available retail space has been let . Local and international brands will be opening including H&M, Zara, Hamleys, Cotton On and Forever 21, Forever New, River Island, Mango and Versace.

PICTURE: TWITTER