Award for Atterbury's Kumasi mall

Ghana's Kumasi City Mall, developed by South African property development and investment company Atterbury, has won the first Africa Property Investment (API) award for retail real estate.

The award was announced at the API Summit and Expo 2017 in Sandton in August.

The 18,500m² mall, in the city of Kumasi, was selected as the best retail project. Opened in April 2017, the mall has the potential to expand to 28,000m².
